HARD ON THE BISHOPS

Walden Was Censured Last Night For Denying the Right of Petition.

CLOSING UP BUSINESS TODAY

Chicago, May 29.—[Special Telegram]—At 12:30 o'clock this afternoon the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which for a month past has been sitting here, came to a close. It has been an eventful and revolutionary session, making progress in the church administration.

This morning the report of the committee on deaconess work was accepted, with one change, the age of 23 being substituted for 25, as that at which a woman may become a deaconess. The board of bishops becomes a board of control of the deaconess work.

A resolution providing for the twentieth century movement was passed. It places Bishop Thoburn at the head of a special commission to carry out the plans for adding 2,000,000 persons to the church and $20,000,000 to missions and church work.

Rough on the Bishops.

This has been a rough general conference on bishops. It is said to be in consequence of a growing weariness of bishops that the conference refused to elect more new bishops than they did.

The conference held an extra session last night at Studebaker hall, Bishop Goodsell presiding, and produced by far the most sensational episode since it first convened.

The body, by an overwhelming majority, passed a vote of censure on Bishop J. M. Walden for treating with contempt the right of petition.

The matter came up on a report from the episcopacy committee, through Chairman Buckley, who said "the censure is as soft as a potato, but it might have been made as strong as a soap and sugar plaster; as far as the facts are concerned."

West Wisconsin Trouble.

The trouble originated three years ago in the West Wisconsin conference, when Bishop Walden was presiding. All the preachers in Milwaukee waited on him in a body to ask for the appointment of one of their number as presiding elder, and, they charge, he refused to receive them and treated them with rudeness and contempt. Later they drew up a petition to the same effect and sent it to him, and he refused, with insults, to touch it. Much correspondence ensued afterward, but the bishop always refused to give the preachers any satisfaction.

The matter was brought before the conference by a memorial from the injured preachers and was referred to the episcopacy committee and by it to the sub-committee on episcopal administration, along with the complaints against Bishop Hurst and Bishop McCabe. The episcopacy committee was in session all yesterday afternoon putting the finishing touches on its report.

Church's Attitude Toward Bishops.

The scene last night, though calculated to astonish an outsider, was only an illustration of the well known principles and traditions of Methodism concerning their bishops. The church does not believe in bishops as an order. They are considered as mere officers and superintendents, removable at pleasure. The moment they are elected they cease to be members either of their annual conferences or of the general conference. They have no right to go on the floor, or to speak or to do anything to influence the action of the body and as surely as they attempt it they meet reproof and insult.

Rang With Angry Cries.

The effort of Bishop Goodsell last night to get permission for Bishop Walden to speak made a scene worthy of any artist's pencil. The moment he proposed it the house rang with angry exclamations of, "Not a word! Not a word!"

Chairman Buckley took the stand and opposed it. He said Bishop Walden had ample opportunities to explain himself to the committee, and he should not say a word to the conference unless all of the complainants were given the same privilege.

"Now, it is my opinion—" said Bishop Goodsell.

"Not a word, sir," said Chairman Buckley. "I want none of your opinions. I stand on my rights as chairman of the episcopacy committee."

Bishop Goodsell swelled up with rage and bit his lip, but made no reply.

The question was put should Bishop

Walden be allowed to speak, and was voted down almost unanimously.

There never was such a humiliating spectacle. Bishop McCabe left the hall and went out into the street, apparently trembling with rage.

Bishop Walden received little sympathy. The general impression is that in what he did in the West Wisconsin conference he was acting strictly in character. Some of the preachers made no effort to conceal their intense satisfaction at his humiliation.

ATTEND THE STATE MEETING

Y. M. C. A. Secretaries and Physical Directors At Milwaukee.

J. C. Kline will be in Milwaukee tomorrow in attendance at the meeting of the state Y. M. C. A. secretaries and physical directors. The meeting is called for the purpose of improving the Y. M. C. A. work in the state of Wisconsin where needed. Many delegates will be in attendance and the session promises to be a most interesting and profitable one.

Night Marches Are Slow.

On night marches troops do not usually advance at more than a mile an hour. In attack neither officer nor man is to stop to help the wounded, and no halt permitted until the enemy is driven off.

PLANET EROS IS FOUND

Prof. H. A. Howe of Denver Rediscovered the Orb—Looked for it Since November Last.

Denver, Colo., May 29.—While Prof. H. A. Howe was waiting yesterday morning about 2 o'clock in the Chamberlain observatory for the sun to rise and the eclipse to begin he made one of the most important observations of the year, the re-discovery of the planet Eros.

This tiny planet which was discovered only two years ago at the Berlin observatory, has been looked for since last September, the time when, according to calculations, it should emerge from behind the sun.

Astrologers all over the world have been scanning the skies for it, but without success. Prof. Howe discovered the planet near the first point of Aries.

LONE HIGHWAYMAN AGAIN.

Single Robber Holds Up the Occupants of a Sleeping Car.

Falls City, Neb., May 29.—The passengers on the sleeping car of train No. 1 of the Missouri Pacific, which left Kansas City last night at 9:25, were held up and robbed early today between here and St. Louis by a highwayman. It is thought he either boarded the train here or at the Burlington and Missouri crossing at Verdon, nine miles north.

After the train left Verdon the robber entered the sleeper and compelled the porter at the point of a revolver to precede and aid him. He had to work fast as the train was making up time, and he only had from ten to fifteen minutes before the train would slack up a mile east of St. Louis. There he jumped off, keeping the passengers back at the point of his revolver, and escaped.

There were not many passengers in the sleeper, and he did not get much. Among those he encountered were Traveling Auditor S. G. Sprague, whom he relieved of his watch and pocketbook, and Missouri Pacific Attorney J. W. Orr, who was compelled to give up his watch, pocketbook and passes.

The passengers describe the robber as a young man, seemingly well educated, five feet four inches tall, weighing 130 pounds and wearing a white mask. He was evidently an amateur.

REPUBLICANS WILL NAME A GOVERNOR

CALL IS OUT FOR THE STATE CONVENTION ON AUGUST 8.

To Be Held In the Exposition Building
In Milwaukee—Same Number of Delegates Under Same Apportionment
As Recent State Meeting—
To Forward Credentials.

Milwaukee, May 29.—The official call for the Republican state convention, to be held in the Exposition building, Milwaukee, August 8, for the purpose of nominating a state ticket, was issued yesterday by Chairman Treat and Secretary Stickney of the Republican State Central committee, and copies were mailed last evening to the various county chairmen throughout the state.

The call explains that the convention will be opened at noon on that day at the Exposition building, and it details the list of nominees to be chosen, these including the full number of elective state officers, while a new State Central committee and chairman will likewise be named at this time. The basis of representation is the same as that to the delegate convention a few weeks ago, and the total number of delegates will be 1,067.

To Act on Credentials.

The point which has given rise to considerable discussion of late in connection with the action of several county chairmen in calling their conventions before the official state call was issued, is brought up in reminder that four weeks' notice for such conventions is required by resolution of the convention of July 26, 1894, though the law requires but a ten days' notice and that notice of such meetings must be given "in the usual manner." As usual the state central committee will constitute a committee on credentials to meet on the eve of the convention and certified credentials must be forwarded to Secretary Stickney as soon as delegates are elected.

Accompanying the call is a letter urging promptness in forwarding credentials and recommending the use of blank forms furnished by the committee for this purpose. Announcement is also made that copies of the explanatory circular on the caucus law will be ready for distribution within a few days.

TAMMANY IS FOR BRYAN

So Says John F. Carroll, Who Is Understood to Voice Richard Cro-ker's Views.

New York, May 29.—John F. Carroll, leader of Tammany hall in the absence of Richard Croker, gave out the following prepared statement last night:

"I do not believe that the attitude of the Tammany hall organization at the state convention will be either doubtful or equivocal. As far as I have been able to consult with the representative men of the organization, they entirely accord with my view of both the propriety and the expediency of sending to the national convention a delegation instructed for William J. Bryan as the presidential candidate. It is safe to say that every delegate will favor the program and whatever influence I may possess will be exerted to impress the desirability of its adoption upon the delegates from the other localities in the state."

The statement, it is understood, was issued with Mr. Croker's full sanction.

Letter Writer's Expense Account.

It appears from figures furnished by the postoffice department that the average person in Massachusetts, including men, women and children, spend $2.30 for postage per annum. New York comes second with an expenditure of $2.27, and the District of Columbia third, with $2.16. Colorado is fourth, with $1.93, and Connecticut is fifth, with $1.80. The states ranking lowest in this regard are South Carolina, with 25 cents per capita; Mississippi, with 34 cents; Alabama, with 36 cents; Arkansas, with 37 cents, and North Carolina, with 41 cents.

TO DESTROY RANDE MINES

Boers Will Dynamite Valuable Mining Property
In Johannesburg.

FREE STATE ANNEXED

Now a Part of the British Empire Known As Orange River State.

FORTY MILES FROM PRETORIA

Cape Town, May 29.—[Special Cablegram]—An interview with Kruger is published here in which he is alleged to have asserted positively that the Boers would destroy the Rand mines.

Klip River, May 29.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Roberts has announced the annexation of the Orange Free state to the Empire under the title of "Orange River state."

Boers Still Retreating.

London, May 29, 8 a. m.—According to an official dispatch from Lord Roberts after midnight last night he is at Klip River, eighteen miles from Johannesburg having marched twenty miles from his position of Sunday on the north branch of the Vaal river.

Johannesburg is only twenty-five miles from Pretoria, and the opposition reports to have encountered is not serious, the burghers having abandoned position after position, and barely escaping from the last with their good guns.

General Buller is believed to be effecting an important turning movement in Natal.

Look for Surrender soon
If one believes what the English war correspondents at the front wire their newspapers and what Lord Roberts telegraphs the War department, the Boer cause is growing more desperate hourly, and, in fact, the surrender of a part of the Transvaal troops is a matter of a short time.

H. J. Whigham, who has just returned to Lourenço Marques from Pretoria, where he went in disguise to ascertain the true state of affairs and the opinion there, says that panic and confusion prevail everywhere; Kruger has a train provisioned for immediate flight, presumably to Holland; thirty-six boxes of gold have been sent to Holland by the Netherlands Bank; and the railway stations are besieged by refugees.

The trains are packed with them and block the lines near Johannesburg, and no visible preparations are being made for defense either at Pretoria or Johannesburg.

Peace Party Is Growing

The seat of government is to be removed first to Waterval Boven, on the Delagoa Bay line, and then to Lydenburg. The peace party, he insists, is growing in strength daily, and now includes several prominent leaders at the front, the people generally thinking of their property.

GEN. ROBERTS NEARING HIS GOAL

NEWS AND GOSSIP
FROM COUNTY TOWNSWEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELE-BRATION AT CLINTON.

No Public Exercises At Clinton On Memorial Day—New Foundry and Polishing Work From Kenosha—Social and Personal News and Notes From Other Towns.

Clinton, Wis., May 29—On Thursday evening last about sixty invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Christman. The occasion was the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding but this fact was not known to the company until after their arrival. Tea was served at small tables at 6 o'clock and the refreshments were fine in every particular. Instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Budlong, Mrs. Emma Hatch and Mrs. Jennie Loveland. Mr. and Mrs. Christman are delightful entertainers and their many friends join in wishing them happy returns of the day celebrated.

The case of H. H. Walker vs. E. L. Benedict came before Justice F. A. Ames last Friday. Silas Menzie of Beloit appeared for the plaintiff and William Jones of this village for the defendant. Several witnesses were sworn and after listening to the testimony Justice Ames decided in favor of the plaintiff. The testimony of the principals in the case was wholly conflicting. Walker who worked for Benedict owned a buggy on which there was a debt of $24. The evidence showed that Benedict loaned Walker the money to pay off the debt, without security, arranging to take it out of plaintiff's wages. Walker quit working when there was still $12 due. Benedict went to a neighboring farm and secured possession of the disputed property unbeknown to Walker who promptly had issued a writ of replevin to recover. Hence the suit.

There will be no exercises on Memorial day at Clinton this year. The members of the Post will visit the cemetery in the forenoon and decorate the graves of the departed comrades but no further ceremonies will be held. A goodly number have expressed their intentions of attending the exercises at Shropshire.

The machinery used in the manufacture of the celebrated Clinton Check Hook has been removed from Kenosha to the Electric Light plant in this village and hereafter the foundry and polishing work will be done here. The patent is owned and manufacture controlled by ex-Bank Director George L. Woodard and is said to be very valuable property.

The Memorial services held at the Congregational church Sunday morning were unusually fine. The room was fittingly and profusely decorated for the occasion with the stars and stripes. The pulpit was buried in flags. Streamers reached from side to side overhead and the choir was beautifully draped with the nation's colors. The song service by the large chorus and the masterly address by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Moore, held the closest attention of the audience.

At a meeting of the High School Alumni held Saturday evening it was voted to issue no invitations for the banquet except to members of the association and their wives or husbands as the case may be. The arrangements for the banquet are about complete, which include a fine musical and literary entertainment.

Mrs. Cora Wakefield and Mrs. Emma Hatch, who are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Christman, presented the latter with a handsome cathedral clock to commemorate the anniversary of their wedding.

He was a student here in 1860-61, prior to entering the army. He expressed himself as very much pleased with what he saw at the institution, and recommends that all students, men or women, looking towards the medical profession, should take now a full collegiate course. The medical course may be abridged thereby and such students make better physicians. He was much pleased to find that Milton College was so well equipped to teach this department. Dr. Duncan was looking over this section of the state for possible good points as regards for health, especially in summer. He thinks that Milton would make a delightful resort for rest during the summer months. Its advantages should be better known. No more restful place for tired humanity could be found.

At the Congregational church last evening the last entertainment on the People's Lecture course was given by the Rev. R. C. Denison who gave an illustrated lecture on "Famous Cathedrals of Europe." The lecture was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The views were excellent, and worked at all times in a satisfactory manner. Rev. Denison's trip to Europe enabled him to be well informed on this subject, and the opinion was last evening that the lecture was one of the most interesting and instructive on the entire course.

FAMILY FIRED UPON.

One Child Is Dead and Three Persons Injured Near Anoka, Minn.

Anoka, Minn., May 29.—As William Wise, a farmer ten miles north of here, was sitting at a table at night playing cards with his wife and four children, some persons fired through the window with a shotgun and a repeating rifle. William Wise, Jr., 7 years old, fell dead, a bullet striking him in the back and emerging from his cheek. James Wise, 11 years old, was shot through the right lung and lost two fingers of his right hand. William Wise, 38 years old, was shot in the right shoulder from behind, ten buckshot entering his body. He is paralyzed and will die. Mrs. Wise was shot in the back and in both arms and will die. Eliza and Martha, the daughters, escaped by jumping into a closet. It is not yet known who did the shooting, but the suspicion of the authorities falls on two persons now under surveillance. In all ten or eleven shots were fired. The Wise family had recently moved here from Wisconsin, where they are said to have been involved in a feud. They had also had some litigation since coming to Minnesota.

Run Down in the Lake.

Manitowoc, Wis., May 29.—The scow Silver Lake was cut down by the car ferry Pere Marquette fifteen miles off this port at 3 o'clock this morning. Henry Eastman, steward, was drowned. The captain and two sailors succeeded in getting into the life boat before the Silver Lake went down, and were rescued by the Pere Marquette. The lost vessel was bound up Lake Michigan with a cargo of wood and ran into a dense fog half an hour before the collision occurred. The Pere Marquette struck amidships, cutting the scow in two. It is said that the steamer was running at nearly full speed. The scow was owned by Neils Johnson of Racine and was worth $1,500.

Young Women as Burglars.

Richview, Ill., May 29.—Two young women, armed with revolvers, giving their names as Gertie and Winnie Pigg, broke into and looted the residence of E. S. Noleman, at Irvington, Ill., in broad daylight. The family was absent. The two girls stole clothing and $35 in money. Their home, they say, is near Mount Vernon. Before coming here they drew revolvers on some young men at Irvington, and when Policeman F. E. McNail of this place put them under arrest they still had their weapons. Their trial will be held at Irvington.

Chicken Swallows Diamond.

Richland, Mo., May 29.—George Rogers, who spends much of his leisure time on his country place feeding chickens for the market, is in a great dilemma. The other day while feeding his pets from his hand one of the greedy fowls nipped a $500 diamond from the ring on his finger, and before he could identify the culprit it had lost itself in the crowd. Rogers may have to kill his entire flock of 300 to find the jewel, though they are not yet ready for market. If he kills them and doesn't find the jewel, he will be out over $100.

CENSURE REPORT IS LOST.

Methodists Take Stand on the Liquor Question.

Chicago, May 29.—Methodist conference delegates refused to severely criticize the administration's policy regarding the army canteen. By an overwhelming vote caustic criticism of President McKinley and Attorney-General Griggs were cut out of the report made by a majority of the members of the temperance committee. The vote followed a lively debate in which party lines were apparent. Gov. Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa, and Richard Yates of Illinois, candidate for governor on the republican ticket, were practically howled down a few minutes after the canteen matter was voted upon.

Mr. Yates moved that the portion of the report calling upon members of the church to vote against political candidates who refuse to place themselves on record as against the liquor traffic, be eliminated. A chorus of "noes," "nevers," and similar expressions of disapproval greeted Mr. Yates' motion.

A vote was taken and the motion was laid on the table in a hurry.

Gov. Shaw invited a second demonstration by immediately rising and offering a motion exactly similar to that which the Illinois candidate had proposed. The delegates once more howled their disapproval, and Gov. Shaw sat down during the confusion. Remarks were freely made in regard to the motion which actuated the propositions of the two public men. Gov. Shaw's motion was also tabled.

Young People Meet Death.

Peoria, Ill., May 30.—As the result of an accident at Mackinaw Falls Wesley Smith, aged 18, and Jessie Skaggs, aged 16, are dead, and Mabel Clausen is seriously injured. The Pekin high school had been at the falls for its annual picnic. The three young people mentioned walked off a little distance from the party to a great pile of bridge caps which were protruding from a hillside over a gully. The caps were resting on an upright post, and the young people walked out so far that they overbalanced the caps, and were crushed beneath them when they fell.

Two Men Killed by Foul Gas.

THE SHEEP QUESTION.

An examination of the sheep industry in every state in the Union shows similar results, advancing values under the Republican policy of protection, and lower values under free trade and its evil influences. Note the following figures of the Department of Agriculture relating to Idaho:

SHEEP IN IDAHO.

Year.	Number.	Value.	Per Head
1891	501,978	$1,154,549	$2.30
1892	527,071	1,204,985	2.40
1893	764,272	1,910,655	2.50
1894	779,547	1,753,081	2.25
1895	919,885	1,299,770	2.25
1896	1,011,852	1,281,76	2.25
1897	1,376,119	2,346,283	1.71
1898	1,651,343	3,612,313	2.10

	2,085,662	7,444,234	2.80

*Democratic and low tariff years.

There was an increase of 20 cents head in the value of Idaho's sheep between 1891 and 1893. There was a decline of $1.23 in the following Democratic years up to 1897. And since President McKinley was elected, with a Republican congress that assured protection to the American wool grower, the value of each sheep in Idaho has increased by $1.53.

With over a million sheep in Idaho in 1896, their total value was but $77,000 more than the half million were worth there in 1892.

With not quite three times as many sheep at the beginning of this year as there were in 1895, this farm stock has increased nearly six times in value.

Western farmers should study these facts and decide, before November, if they want any more free trade destroying the value of their flocks.

Idaho is simply an example of conditions in every state where sheep are grown.

The recent convert, the ex-lower taxation organ, in an "inspired" editorial, calls The Gazette a liar, and says it can prove the assertion by City Attorney Burpee. This arrangement is satisfactory to The Gazette, and we trust that the ex-lower taxation organ will at once interview the city attorney and publish his opinion as to whether or not the lighting committee, by embodying the terms of the lighting contract it favored in the order that the contract be drawn, sought to tie his hands. Toe the mark, ex-lower taxation organ, toe the mark!

Democratic Representative Chandler of New York; Small of North Carolina; and Randsell of Louisiana, in their minority report on the shipping bill in part said:

"We will state frankly that, conceding the necessity for some legislation as to a solution of the problem, we are not able to suggest as practicable or feasible any other general plan for the upbuilding of our merchant marine than some measure of governmental aid."

Sad, isn't it, that republicans should need a democratic defense!

And as the subject has been re-opened, it may be of interest to the Ex-Lower Taxation organ to know that Mayor Richardson announced that he wouldn't sign any contract that was not approved by the city attorney. Why not also interview the mayor and publish his opinion?

For the fourth time Hon. J. W. Babcock, of Wisconsin, has been chosen chairman of the republican congressional committee. This is a mark of confidence never before shown to any republican.

"Missouri politics" says the St. Louis Globe Democrat "is carried on by one kind of republicans, two kinds of populists and about forty kinds of democrats."

Ex-Congressman Belford, of Colorado, has returned to the republican party because "it accomplishes things."

Healthy to yawn.

It is healthy to yawn, according to a French physician, who says it is as efficacious in its way as gargling the throat in cases of sore throat, buzzing of the ears, catarrh, and like troubles.

EARNEST BEYERS BEFORE THE COURT

JANESVILLE, BOY GETS ONE YEAR SENTENCE.

Pleaded Guilty to the Charge of Larceny.—Lucky That He Did, Not Get More—Had Been There Twice Before—Is a Young Man.

Ernest Beyers pleaded guilty in the Rock county municipal court at ten o'clock this morning to the charge of the larceny of goods to the value of $4.33 from F. M. Hibbard. The court sentenced Beyers to the state prison at Waupun for the term of one year.

When Beyers enters prison the surroundings will not be unfamiliar to him. He has been within prison walls twice before. The court on passing sentence this morning took into consideration that the prisoner withdrew his plea of not guilty, thus saving the county the expense of a trial. Beyers has also spent several days in jail, being confined there since his arrest.

When the case was called this morning the defendant's mother occupied a front seat and at all times paid the closest attention to what was being done. Attorney Wilson Lane appeared in behalf of the defendant.

Beyers resides in this city and was placed under arrest on April 26 by Officer John Brown on the charge of stealing from F. M. Hibbard the following property: Twelve knives of the value of $2; 4 pairs of shears of the value of $1; one pair of cuff buttons of the value of 10 cents; one lock of the value of 25 cents; and five razors of the value of $1 and all to the value of $4.33.

The Woman's Relief Corps to Decorate Graves.

Final necessary arrangements for the observing of Memorial day by the citizens of Janesville have been completed and all that is now desired is good weather. Merchants should display patriotic colors and owners of private residences should not be backward about displaying Old Glory at half mast.

The line of march of the parade will be the same as in years past to start from the Court House park at 1:30 o'clock. At least two bands will be in the line of march, the procession to be headed by Hi Henry's famous minstrel band.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps are in need of flowers to be used in decorating the graves of the soldier dead. All those who can give are requested to leave flowers at the vacant Jeffris store on the Milwaukee street street bridge early tomorrow morning. Those who can come as early as seven thirty are requested to do so. Also come prepared to help decorate.

During the past year the ranks of the W. H. Sargent post have been thinned by the death of several veterans.

STREET WORK CAUSE FOR STRONG PROTEST

South Second Street Property Owners Think That Their Street Does Not Need Repairing.

At the regular meeting of the common council held last evening Mayor Richardson and all the aldermen were in their seats when the session was called to order. Attorneys John Winans and William Riger were present and entered a protest in behalf of South Second street property owners, protesting against the improvement of that street. The improvement will cost the property owners $2800 for three blocks. Nearly all the property owners are against favoring the plan. Attorneys Winans and Riger asked the council to inspect the street and this will be done.

Mayor Richards on reported that A. F. Hall had made the purchase of the South Main street improvement for $1,822.52.

WINDOW DISPLAY

An Attractive Lot of Lion Coffee Premiums in W. T. Sherer's Window.

We frequently hear the claim, "something given for nothing," but do not often see an actual demonstration of the principle, like the display of Lion Coffee premiums now on exhibition in W. T. Sherer's, druggist, window.

Here are many valuable articles, all given free for the lion heads, cut from Lion Coffee wrappers. These are not cheap articles, but comprise clocks, umbrellas, watches, gold rings and jewelry, besides many things useful and ornamental in the household, or will be enjoyed by the children. Lion Coffee fully deserves the popularity which it has gained, because of its superior strength and flavor.

THE CAPE NOME RUSH.

Greatest Seen in the Past Half Century.

EXPECT MINERS IN THE EXODUS.

Over Fifty Thousand Persons Are Likely to Go There This Season. Illustrations of the Wonderful Richness of the Sands—Best Method For Securing the Gold.

The greatest rush to a new goldfield for half a century is now in progress, says the San Francisco correspondent of the New York Sun. Cape Nome is the destination of the crowd. The rush to the Klondike was the largest to any gold mining country since the excitement in California, but statistics show that fewer than 20,000 went to the Klondike and the Yukon river country during 1898, and there were 6,200 more in 1899. It is estimated that 40,000 or 50,000 people are preparing to start for Cape Nome.

The season of navigation in the Arctic has just opened, and already 5,100 men and women have sailed from Seattle, Vancouver and San Francisco for Cape Nome. Passage to Cape Nome has been provided for about 5,000 more, who will sail this month. Captain Hanchett, who has long been in the Alaskan steamship business, thinks that almost 60,000 men and women will have gone to the Alaskan mining fields when the season of navigation closes next October.

"There are 21 steam craft besides 32 schooners and ships," he said, "that will leave California and Washington ports for Cape Nome before June 10, and each craft will carry from 50 to 1,200 people. Eight of the steamships will carry more than 1,000 people each. They will no doubt make four round trips between San Francisco and Cape Nome this season, and their owners have reason to believe they alone will carry about 30,000 gold hungry folks to Alaska before the ice closes in and stops navigation next fall. The rush to Cape Nome is more general than that to the Klondike because it is easier of access, and one does not have any of the privations in a journey to Cape Nome that were endured two or three years ago in going to the Klondike. Then, too, the American mining laws that prevail at Cape Nome please more people than the Canadian laws in the Klondike diggings.

Our estimates of the number of people who will go to Cape Nome this season are confined wholly to people in North America; but there are several thousands who are now sailing from Australia, from Chile, Peru and New Zealand for Cape Nome. Judging from correspondence, Sweden and Norway will contribute heavily to the crowds going to Alaska this summer. You know that three of the seven pioneer gold washers at Cape Nome were Swedes who had been engaged as Lutheran missionaries among the Eskimos on the Alaskan coast."

The rush of Cape Nome involves the transportation of an enormous quantity of mining machinery, portable houses, tents, beasts of burden, stocks of merchandise and articles of household use. One steamer, started from San Francisco recently for Cape Nome with hydraulic machinery aboard to the value of $350,000, and another steamer similarly laden left Seattle two days later. For months the iron founders and mining machinery builders of the Pacific coast have been at work on new devices to meet the demands of gold mining on the sandy sea beach and among the gravel beds of the creeks at Cape Nome, for in some respects the mining conditions in the new Alaskan field have revolutionized placer mining methods. Several machine companies have each put tens of thousands of dollars into gold rockers and mammoth sluices for use in the Cape Nome placers. A half dozen schooners cleared from Seattle and Vancouver a week ago laden with coal and lumber for use in the new mining field, where there has been a very serious fuel famine all winter. A company of Denver and El Paso capitalists have invested $75,000 in barges and steam tugs for carrying freight from the ocean steamers to the land at Nome. Another company has had brought from Japan 20 sampans for use in lightering at Cape Nome. A sampan is a flat bottomed boat peculiarly adapted for carrying loads in a heavy sea. To manage these craft many Japanese have been sent to Cape Nome.

Since the palmy days of the California gold diggings there has not been a stampede to a newly discovered gold region that has comprised so many men of fame and wealth in the mining world. Scarcely any miner of experience and wealth joined in the rush over the Chilkoot pass to Dawson City in 1898. Nineteen out of 20 men in the Klondike stampede were tenderfoot miners. The number of white haired miners, millionaire miners and expert miners who are going to Cape Nome is surprising. For instance, there is Lucky Baldwin of San Francisco. He was one of the first Comstock Lode mining kings, and first and last he has made and spent millions of dollars in gold mining. No other mining excitement in 30 years has moved him. Now, at the age of 72, he is about to go to Cape Nome with a company of experienced prospectors and metallurgists to recoup his fortunes. There is Charles D. Lane, the richest gold miner now operating on the Pacific coast. He owns one-half the famous Utica mine and several other gold mines that altogether pay an average of between $40,000 and $45,000 a month. He has fitted out the steamship Sacramento with provisions and mining implements and with a company of experts, will sail soon for Cape Nome. His son-in-law has made a small fortune in two placer claims on Snow creek at Cape Nome. Two of the miners who returned from the Harquah Goldfield 20 years ago and have been living in affluence in Los Angeles ever since have been so stirred by the reports of former associates concerning the new strikes at Cape Nome that they can no longer resist the allurement and will soon sail for the new diggings.

State Senator Nelson of Oregon, who spent all last summer at Cape Nome and traveled overland to St. Michael's from Fort Clarence, said: "The goldfields on the western coast of Alaska are the richest ever discovered. I believe that they will yield not less than $35,000,000 in 1900, and in a few years more, when the whole region has been prospected and mining has become a settled industry, half the world's supply will come from the frozen north. Gold has been dug in some quantities throughout this whole Cape Nome region; but, because the beach sands were so easily and profitably worked by the poor men who were the pioneers there, the possibilities of placer mining beneath the tundra were not properly exploited last year. When the scores of mining companies got to work up there with their great hydraulic machinery, I look for the most wonderful era in gold washing the world has ever known. This may sound pretty enthusiastic, perhaps exaggerated, but as I know personally of groups of four and five men who sluiced from 60 to 70 pounds of pure gold from the gravel banks along Anvil and Bourbon creeks in 30 hours last summer I think I have the right to expect some pretty big things from that region. I ought to say here that 60 pounds avyrdupols of gold is worth about $15,000 at Nome and $10,000 at the United States mints. Amazing stories come from all the interior creek and river beds wherever the most careless prospecting has done. Near Council City, on Fish river, about 75 miles inland, 500 ounces of coarse gold and nuggets, some of them weighing from half an ounce to an ounce, were taken out of a space 20 feet square, and bedrock gravel ran $20 to the pan. On Crooked creek in the same region men have averaged $40 a day with a rocker. On Canyon creek $100 a day to the man has been reported. Three claims (Nos. 7, 16 and 18) on Snow creek yielded $400,000 last season. On Dexter creek Leo Lowenberg rocked out 282 ounces, worth $5,076, in two days. A nugget weighing 224 ounces and worth $400 was picked up recently on Anvil creek. United States Treasury Agent John Shartzer, who knew nothing about mining, washed out $12 in two hours on the beach at Nome and the next day cleaned up $22 in two hours.

The gold bearing beach sands are unique in the history of mining. The sand has a peculiar deep red tint, a dull ruby color. The gold in it is very fine and is difficult to secure, much of it being lost, or, rather, not caught at the first effort. Many of the miners at Nome last summer were working with pans only, but others, especially those who combined to work several claims, used rockers with much greater success. In places it is necessary to use quicksilver to secure the gold. The most successful method adopted so far is that of using silvered copper plates at the bottom of the rockers. The miners are not equipped with the proper appliances to save all the gold, and I believe that some dry process, such as the desert miners in Arizona use, can be used to better advantage. As to returns for the work done, they vary, of course, according to the location of the claims and the manner in which they are worked. For miles the beach has been torn up, and how many miles of gold bearing sand there are no one knows. The country has been prospected for 60 miles to the northward, and colors have been secured all along the beach. The portions of the beach which have already been worked will doubtless yield good returns from another working if it is properly done. The work last summer was being done along the beach clear up to the houses, and it became necessary to stop the work in places in order to save the houses, for protection from the elements is as necessary as food there ten years."

STILL UNDECIDED.

He Was "Sot" on One Thing and Uncle Sam on Another. I asked a moonshine distiller on the Cumberland mountains if it was the profit in whisky which induced him to take such risks of arrest and imprisonment.

"Reckon not," he replied after awhile.

"Perhaps you like the excitement and adventure?"

"No, can't say I does."

"You don't drink it yourself, I believe?"

"Not a drop."

"And you could make more money getting out barrel stuff or railroad ties?"

"I'm suth I could."

"Then will you tell me why you went into distilling?"

"Well, suth, it was just sotness, I reckon. I never thought to go into it till Bill comes home and says the United States was sot that I shouldn't. Then I got sot that I would. The old woman was sot that they'd ketch me, and I was sot that they shouldn't. Bill was sot fur bar'l stuff, and that made me sot fur whisky. Yes, I reckon it's all sotness."

"But what will the end be?" I asked.

"That's to be found out," he replied.

"If the United States has got mo' sotness than I hav, then I'll bring up in the Albany penitentiary. If I've got mo' sotness than the United States, then old Jim Ikenfew will come out on top, and the United States won't be nowhere."

You advertise two pairs of socks for 15 cents, but I'm not goin to take advantage of it. ## TO EVEN UP WITH GERMANY

For its Anti-American Meat Legislation.

INCREASED DUTIES ASKED

Of the Kaiser's People in a Bill introduced in the House by Representative Bailey of Kansas—Alaskan Bill Passes the House.

Washington, D. C., May 29.—As the result of conferences between President J. W. Springer of Denver of the National Live Stock association and members of congress, relative to the German meat-inspection bill, the following bill was introduced in the house by Representative Bailey of Kansas:

"That whenever the president of the United States shall be informed that the government of the German empire has passed a law imposing prohibitory duties on meat products which may be imported into that country from the United States he shall issue a proclamation fixing a time when all articles produced or manufactured in the German empire, when entered for consumption at the ports of the United States, shall pay a duty of 10 per cent in excess of the duties imposed thereon prior to the passage of this act, and all such products and manufactures when so entered for consumption after said time fixed by the president shall pay such increased duties." The bill was referred to the ways and means committee. Mr. Springer said: "The National Live Stock association feels that the live stock industry is singled out by the German empire for direct discrimination. It feels, too, that the time has come for the allied stock interests of the United States to speak out in no uncertain tones."

Charges English Alliance.

Washington, May 29.—In the course of a speech in favor of the adoption of a resolution expressing the senate's sympathy for the Boers Mr. Wellington (Md.) referred to a secret understanding existing between the United States and Great Britain. When Mr. Lodge (Mass.) demanded proof that such an understanding existed, Mr. Wellington said that in the circumstances it was difficult to present tangible proof, but he believed the proof could be found in the secret archives of the state department. Mr. Lodge replied that under our form of government no such understanding could exist, and as the secretary of state had emphatically denied the existence of any alliance or understanding he believed the country would accept his statement as true.

Alaskan Bill Passed.

Washington, May 29.—The Alaskan civil government bill was passed by the house and some odds and ends of legislation were cleaned up. Mr. Dallzell gave notice that the anti-trust resolution and bill reported by the judiciary committee would be considered Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week under a special order.

SURRENDER IN PHILIPPINES.

Two Submissions Reported by Gen. MacArthur.

Washington, May 29.—The war department has received the following cablegram from General MacArthur, at Manila, dated today: "Three officers, fifty-six men, with forty-six rifles, surrendered unconditionally at Cuyapo yesterday. Three officers, forty-six men, with fifty-five rifles, surrendered unconditionally today at Tarlac. These spontaneous surrenders are most encouraging."

"Schlatter" Forced to Run.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 29.—A tall, attenuated old man essayed to heal the sick and make cripples walk at Forest City park. He called himself "Schlatter, the divine healer." "Schlatter" made an unpleasant remark about a woman who accompanied a smoker. The man with the cigar started for the platform, and the crowd began climbing on the platform to resent the remark. "Schlatter" disappeared and ran to the dance pavilion, where the cool of the lunchroom allowed him to take refuge in the kitchen, and kept the crowd at bay with a butcher knife until the police came.

Chinese Secure Injunction.

San Francisco, Calif., May 29.—Federal Judge Morrow was granted an injunction to prevent the Federal and local health authorities from discriminating against the Chinese in the matter of precautions against the plague. This means that the Chinese cannot be forcibly inoculated with anti-plague serum and that they cannot be prevented from entering or leaving San Francisco by the federal quarantine officers.

Wish Port Propeller Broken.

New York, May 29.—With its port propeller wrenched off just abaft the strut, the steamship New York, of the American line, reached its pier having made half of the voyage from Cherbourg with one propeller. The accident caused a two days' delay in her arrival. The break had apparently been caused by the propeller striking a floating log or a derelict.

Five Seconds in Advance of Astronomers' Computations.

Wadesboro, N. C., May 29.—Five seconds in advance of computed time the solar eclipse of 1900 was observed in totality along a path roughly defined from Norfolk to New Orleans. Visually observed at Wadesboro, it was devoid of sensational features, and photography will have to give whatever additions may be made to astronomic knowledge. To this means are left the determination of the corona line, the discovery of an inter-mercurial planet, and definitions of the corona.

Pinehurst, N. C., May 29.—The observations here were a gratifying success. Prof. A. N. Skinner, in charge of the naval observatory party, furnished the following statement to the Associated Press at 10 o'clock:

"The sun rose clear and the sky was unobscured by clouds. The delicate apparatus was in perfect adjustment. The first contact occurred at the predicted time, 7:36. The beginning totality was the signal for the work of the morning, which was accomplished in the short time of 94 seconds. Five spectrum photographs were obtained with the flat grating and the concave grating by Dr. Ames and his skillful assistants, Messrs. Huff, Gilbert and Reese. Dr. Chase of Yale obtained four fine spectrum photographs with the objective prism spectroscope. Fine photographs of the outer corona were obtained with the six cameras on the polar axis by Messrs. Gore, Ball, Eichberger, King, Caperton and Kent. Good drawings of the corona were made by Profs. Wood, Frisby and Yowell. Prof. Wood and Dr. Dorsey used polariscopes. Mr. Parsons took some valuable polaroscopic photographs. Mr. Colton took five fine photographs with the 40-foot lens. Everything passed off successfully. Every plan was executed."

FIRE IN CINCINNATI BALL PARK.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 29.—The grand stand and the pavilion at the Cincinnati baseball park were burned, causing a loss, fully insured, of $15,000. How the fire started is a mystery. It was discovered at 3 a. m. in the grand stand just in the rear of the reporters' box, and although a general alarm was turned in and twenty engines responded, the flames were not checked until the pavilion, grand stand and clubhouse were destroyed.

All of the uniforms, gloves, bats, etc., that were in the clubhouse were burned, and Second Baseman Steinfelt mourns the loss of his pet dog, the mascot of the team. Of the grand stand only the steel frame remains, and that is so twisted and warped by the heat as to be worthless except for old iron. On the opposite side of the street from the grand stand are a number of tenement houses, and the inmates of these were rescued by the police after great difficulty.

Gloves for the Feet...

That is what you will say if you wear a Foster Shoe. They are the best made. We have talked with many ladies and find that no Shoe is as popular as a Foster. You once wear a pair and you never again will be satisfied to wear anything else. Like everything else that is the best it is the cheapest in the end. It will wear longer; it is always a perfect fit; it is a leader in style. We have just added to the line a new hand channel sole which is as flexible as a turn, and in weight, just between a welt and turn. It has the upper stock the same as in higher priced grades and made on the same lasts, but by this new process of hand channeling the sole, we buy it so that we can now sell it at . . .

$ 3.50.

Just think of a Foster Shoe at that price. All widths carried in stock. We have a swell line of new summer Oxfords.

It is the Height Of Many Men's Ambitions

TO HAVE THEIR CLOTHES MADE TO ORDER.

What does the man get when he selects a suit from a sample piece of cloth and has his suit made from it by a cheap Chicago tailor? Here is where the pointer comes in. He gets worse than trash—worse than the commonest kind of ready-made stuff. You can't get a first-class made-to-measure suit at $12 to $18.00 by any means.

You Can Get

A first-class all ready to wear Suit from us at $15.00 to $20.00 which compares favorably with good made to order suits that cost $25.00 to $30.00.

Stop and Think

What will you do—go to a first-class tailor and pay from $25.00 to $40.00, or get our right tailored garments at $15.00, upwards? It is the made-to-measure man whom we are most anxious to bring into our store that he may see with his own eyes scientifically tailored to fit clothing.
